

Serenaya

Bio

Serenaya is a Ghanaian-American Pop/R&B artist whose sound blends soulful vocals and dynamic melodies with afrobeats undertones to tell honest stories about love, self-growth, and connection. Hailing from Frisco, TX and now based in Los Angeles, Serenaya writes music that resonates on an emotional level—music that’s meant to be felt.

After going viral with a snippet of her breakout single “Lovely” in 2021, Serenaya continued building momentum, performing at iconic venues like Whisky A Go Go and The Virgil in LA and releasing her debut album My Universe in 2024. That same year, she founded Soulstice Sounds, a growing artist showcase and open mic that brings together LA’s independent music scene to connect, perform, and collaborate.

With a powerful voice, a clear artistic vision, and a passion for building community, Serenaya is carving out a lane that’s both vulnerable and empowering—inviting others to not just listen, but to create alongside her.
